

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION

14TH NOV: The children's day celebration culminated with the Kids Fest which included exciting programmes put up by III-V boys' section in the auditorium. The programme started with a documentary a tribute to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru,

A beautiful DUA, "lab pe ati hai dua banke tamanna meri" as " My longing comes to my lips as supplication of mine....." of Allama Iqbal was recited by boys, who were trained by Urdu/Arabic department .

Wonderful skit was presented by English department. “MIND YOUR LANGUAGE”. It was to create a light atmosphere in the crowd as it was to make children laugh, as it was their day to enjoy.

The beautiful story of young boy Abdul Qadir Gilani, later grown up and became a great scholar.

In his childhood, in order to pursue knowledge he started his journey to Baghdad in a caravan. Group of robbers attacked the caravan and started looting. He confessed of having 40 gold coins with him . He was obedient to his mother. Mother made me promise to always be truthful even at the cost of my life. All the robbers gave up robbery and became righteous persons in a skit .“OBEDIENCE TO PARENTS” and “In shaa Allah” song was sung melodiously by the students, who were trained by Islamic department.

Importance of love, unity and peace in the world depicted in the play,“PREM SE HUMKO JEENE DO” with colourful animal costumes, marvelously performed by the boys, who were trained by hindi department.

Interesting connection between education and entertainment was presented by the Maths department, describing the catchy songs for all the subjects including lunch and dispersal in “A DAY AT SCHOOL”.

Our little stars were enlightened with one of the most sensitive issue of our society to raise awareness and to prevent child labour i.e., “NO CHILD LABOUR” by E.V.S. Department.

“life of little ones are destroyed when child labor is employed”

“SOUTH INDIAN culture was depicted in the traditional songs also known as “Carnatic songs” performed by Third Language Department.

“We the III-V BS –Memorable Glimses” compiled by Computer Department mesmerised the audience .

The main motto of all the respective departments was to combine education with entertainment. The participation of the students played a vital role in making the programme a big success.

Charismatic performance of the students won the hearts of the audience.
