

English Elocution Competition (2017-2018)

III-V GS

*"I'm not in competition with anybody but myself.
My goal is to beat my last performance."- Celine Dior*

These famous words lingered in the minds of all those who were present to witness the English Elocution Competition in the III-V block(GS) held in the auditorium for classes IV and V on 29th January '18.

The program started with a few verses from the holy Quran by Alana Aysa of Class IVA10.

The speakers, exhibited perfect nuances and finer points that go into making the speech interesting and captivating. The poise, self-confidence and articulation delivered by them with conviction, made the event a successful one. Some factors which were adjudged during the competition were voice quality, speech content and delivery standards. The topics for the elocution competition were as follows:

Class IV

- 1) Importance of girls' education.*
- 2) Humility is a sign of strength.*
- 3) Charity begins at home.*

Class V

- 1) Misuse of modern technology.*
- 2) World peace.*
- 3) An idle mind is a devil's workshop.*

The judges were Mrs. Sarfraz Sirajuddin and Mrs. Shameem Rafath. The comperers Maheen Fatima of Class V A9 and Hooriya Rafiuddin of Class VA10 did a wonderful job. They were trained by Mrs. Asfina Sayal.

The Headmistress, Mrs. Ghazala Ahmed appreciated the hard work of the students and teachers. The content collated by the students to prepare the assigned topic of the elocution was appreciated by all.
